Wine:

2001. Mer Soleil, Central Coast, Chardonnay 2005-
 This lively wine opens with tropical fruit an honeysuckle aromas. Luxurious flavors of crème brulee and a hint of butter are framed by notes of fine oak and the lively acidity of citrus zest. The mouthfeel is full and lush and brings all o the wine's elements through to a long, persistent finish.

2002. & 2003. Chateau St.Jean, Sonoma, Cinq Cepages, Cabernet Sauvignon 2002- Engaging and seductive, the

2002 vintage delivers chocolate covered cherries and hints of mocha. Deep, dense, beautifully balanced, a medium-bodied entry fills the mouth with black plums, hibiscus notes and an exotic floral note that wrap around big, juicy tannins. Highly extracted and perfectly balanced this wine delivers cedar and sweet roasted oak notes through a lingering finish. (2 available)
